| 54 | Seminar on Internet Ethics | 25/11/2024 | S1-S3 | 480 | $1,920.00 | $4.00 | The Internet has a high degree of freedom. Compared with face-to-face communication, it seems easier for people to comment on current events and people on the Internet through a screen. But sometimes, it can go too far and hurt people, become cyberbullying, or start a fire and get chased and bullied. This lecture will guide students to face up to the ethics of online communication and correct wrong online social behaviours. | Moral and Civic Education | Participant surveys and classroom observations | ✓ | | | | Student Development and Growth Committee | |
| 55 | Seminar on Love and Marriage for Form 6 | 12/10/2024 | S6 | 160 | $1,600.00 | $10.00 | The culture of sexual liberation regards sex as the fulfilment of personal desires, ignoring the importance of love and the foundation of marriage. This lecture will reiterate the close relationship between love, marriage and sex, and help students establish a correct and healthy concept of sex and marriage. | Moral and Civic Education | Participant surveys and direct observations | ✓ | | | | Student Development and Growth Committee | |
| 56 | A lecture on Ethical Discussion of Artificial Intelligence | 9/11/2024 | S4-S6 | 320 | $1,600.00 | $5.00 | The lecture arouses students' attention to the application of artificial intelligence (AI) and its impact. Generative AI is built on large-scale information data. These programs allow artificial intelligence to make decisions and generate data through learning. Still, at the same time, it causes much false information, and it is becoming more and more difficult to distinguish. The boundary between real and virtual is getting blurred and confused; students need to face it with a correct attitude and keep their sobriety in the AI world. | Moral and Civic Education | Participant survey and comment form | ✓ | | | | Student Development and Growth Committee | |
| 57 | A lecture about the misuse of streaming platforms | 28/9/2023 | S4-S6 | 320 | $1,600.00 | $5.00 | The content of streaming platforms is not subject to legal supervision, and most platforms only provide a parental guideline for reference. Still, many programs' range completely exceeds traditional values' bottom line. Multiple marriages in open relationships, transgender men getting pregnant, wife-swapping games, sexual abuse and more. This lecture lets students understand the importance of morality on these platforms, which needs to be corrected, and teach students how to use streaming platforms carefully to find programs. | Moral and Civic Education | Participant survey and comment form | ✓ | | | | Student Development and Growth Committee | |
